

Transition Session A: Music for tuning in, developing physical control and problem solving skills

Objectives:

- To help prepare parents/carers and their children for the transition into school.
- To help parents/carers understand the importance of environmental sounds, music and movement as the basis of learning.
- To learn new songs and actions.
- To give parents/carers ideas for supporting their child's physical and mental capacity for learning.